Judge Kelley's Southern Campaign—His Speech at Montgomery.

MONTGOMERY, Ala, May 19, 1867

Judge Kelley addressed a large meeting, composed about equally of whites and freedmen, last evening at the Capitol grounds He was introduced by Mr. John C Keyes, of Gen Swayne's civil staff Governor Patton and many other distinguished citizens, of both parties, were on the platform Several carriages filled with ladies were on the ground The meeting was undisturbed by the slightest interruption The speaker was listened to with profound attention and respect

Upon being introduced Mr Kelley said that he wished them to understand that he did not come to promote discord among any people or section, but to heal, if possible, with such influence as he could command, the wounds of a bleeding country The results of the war, terrible as they are in the present, would be beneficent in the future He regretted that it was inevitable, but it seemed to have come in order of Providence All great benefits reached us through suffering The throes of agony which afflicted alike the North and the South brought with them the birth of a new nation He pointed out the contrast between the richness of the South and that of the cold North, where men had to toil for every dollar, but still the Northern men were richer and enjoyed more of the luxuries of life Alabama alone had more resources in mineral and other wealth than all New England put together In none of the Eastern States was there coal, and little iron they could not grow corn there In Alabama they can grow wheat months earlier than in the North but they had not done so because they relied upon other States for food, and devoted the soil to one special crop All vegetables can be grown in this State. There were copper, lead and gold in their hills, and it would be their fault if the North did not cease to send abroad for their crude brimstone, specimens of which and other minerals he had seen a moment ago in the Executive chamber These facts told in foreign lands, and the fact that they had freedom now and common schools being known abroad capital and labor would pour in from those countries They have their coal and iron slumbering in the ground, and throw the soil upon the shoulders of labor In the North they make coal and iron their laborers, and throw the heavy work upon machinery Young, tender girls and the widow of the soldier tend the loom and direct the thread while the steam engine does the heavy work In coming to the South he thought that his experience might be of service to them, and he hoped that he might be remembered for doing them some good He attended to the common school system in the North and Northwest, for which every man, rich and poor, is taxed, and the humblest boy may step from the school to college, and thence to a learned profession and the head of a commercial establishment This was his own story Since his eleventh year he never was a pupil in a public school Up to twenty five he was a working mechanic Although there were no such cities as New York Philadelphia, Cincinnati or St Louis in the South, yet they had at their command, in connection with their other resources, the richest cotton fields and the richest rice fields of all America The sections of country had the same constitution and flag, but in the North the boy was educated to rise in the world and become the richest man in the community, and the law guaranteed to the working man fair wages for a fair day's work He urged them to build rolling mills, erect furnaces, employ the water power at Wetumpka and up in the other cotton districts, and to rotate their crops as we do in the North The day will come when Alabama will not confine herself to cotton as her sole crop, but she will send her railroad iron to the Gulf The wives and daughters of men as dusky as those around him would spin the cotton They need not tell him they can't do it, for he had visited the colored schools and found enough of talent and intelligence there to convince him that they had the laborers at hand if they only trained them Addressing the white people, Mr Kelly said he failed to find any other reason for the difference between the North and South than their contempt for the rights of man as man He urged them to set aside their prejudices and reconstruct the South promptly and willingly If that were done he would declare in behalf of the whole country, that the present laws of Congress would be a finality unless it was driven to enact harsher measures, and before many years the South would be more liberal and as prosperous as the North He then addressed the freedmen, reminding them that their freedom meant the right to toil for their living and get their pay for it, but in doing so they must be just to all Freedom means that a good man is better than a bad man, and the smart man wins the race They were at liberty to protect their wives, and they should take care of them, and send their children to school, that they might have a lighter task to endure than their fathers They must live in peace with the people of Alabama. They will have to pay taxes and study the politics of their country. Let those who were mechanics try to start for themselves, and those who were farm laborers should avail themselves of the homestead law, or, if the government lands were too far away, Congress should see that land offices should be brought nearer to the people (Cheers) He was not the agent of a party but he loved the party he belonged to because of its great principles Devotion to the Union and belief in the rights of man were its two basis Alluding to the views of the Republican party upon national interests, he said that they believed that the levees of the Mississippi, whose wretched condition had lost millions of acres to the South, should be kept in order by the general government, because they believed that that river was a great national highway and essential to the prosperity of the whole country Congress will not go farther than it has done in the matter of reconstruction, and it had done nothing that was not essential to the maintenance of a Christian republic Citizens of Montgomery, I have spoken to you as I would have spoken to the citizens of Mobile had they listened to me. If there be anything offensive in what I have said, then proclaim, as the people of Mobile did, that I ought to be shot down. (Cries of "No, no," and loud cheers)

Amid the cheers of the audience Judge Kelly retired This morning he left for Atlanta

Horrors of a Mummy Pit.

A young Philadelphian, traveling in Egypt, writes to the Inquirer of that city that he was recently let down into a cavern used as a sepulchre for mummies He says

I imagine a vaulted chamber about twenty five feet square Away down in the very heart of this granite rock, dimly lighted by our two flickering tapers, filled almost to the roof, was a countless, piled up mass of uncoffined mummies There they lay in all shapes and postures Time had burst the twining ligaments of some, and their bony arms and fleshless fingers seemed struggling up from the mass, as if to lay hold of the disturbers of their slumbers Some were placed upright against the wall, and in the weird shadows thrown by the candles light their features twitched and moved, and their long sealed lips seemed opening to denounce us The Arab drew a long knife from the sheath on his arm and commenced cutting and tearing off the wrappings in search of the scarabæus, and, as his naked limbs sank among the dry bones and his swarthy arms tossed about the bodies, he looked like some hideous vampire at his nightly meal The air was very bad, and I was about to beat a retreat, when suddenly a thought flashed across my mind that almost froze my blood with horror I am not a coward, but for a moment my heart stood still The cave was filled with a thousand mummies, drier than the driest tinder, and soaked in bitumen, each one wrapped in many folds of mummy cloth, as inflammable as gun cotton A single spark from one of the candles would have spread like wildfire, and no power upon earth could have saved us from a fearful death We would have been roasted alive in five minutes I remarked this to Harry, he saw it instantly, and, calling to the guide to be careful of the lights, while I started for the open air, on I went, through the narrow passage, striking knees and garments against the sharp stones, shudderingly expecting each moment to lay my hands upon the slimy coils of a serpent in the dark, and every now and then sticking fast, and feeling (in imagination) the scorching breath of the fire fiend on my back At last I reached the hole and was drawn up, very glad to breathe the pure air and feel the warm sun again

An Heiress Claims One Million Dollars Worth of Property.

From the New Albany Commercial

We learn that a Miss Catharine Hatton, of Caroline county Va has lately made the startling discovery that she is the rightful heir of property to the amount of about one million of dollars, in the upper part of this city The lady claims that she is the direct and only living lineal descendant, and sole heir of George and Ann Hatton, who in 1847 obtained a patent for one hundred acres of land in No 38 of Illinois grant, from Andrew P Hay David W Dully, Samuel McCammbell, Christopher Cole and Alexander Mies who were appointed by the General Assembly of the State of Virginia a Commissioners to apportion and deed the land granted to the Illinois regiment This patent was issued to George and Ann Hatton, who was a soldier under General George Rogers Clark in the famous expedition, in what was known as the Illinois regiment

The suit which will decide her claim is for lot No 37 Upper Oak street, the property of William S Culbertson, and in the event of her success in this case, she will, it is said commence suit for the whole estate The case is docketed for the eleventh day of the present term of the Floyd Circuit Court It is creating quite a sensation in real estate circles Her claim embraces one hundred acres commencing at the grant line intersecting Seventh street, and running northeast along Poplar street, and thence south, parallel with Vincennes street, to a point about thirty feet south of Spring street, till it again intersects the grant line in front of Mr Scott Moore's residence

Jeff. Davis.

The New York Hotel was the hot bed of secession during the war Its landlord had a surgical operation performed upon his cranium by a white hand in the hands of a Southerner several years ago and since that Laptism of blood and wine, he has become Northern man of Southern instincts It was a novel method of inoculating a man with a sympathy for secession, but it seems to have imbued him with the tropical temperature, and the Confederates flock thereas eagles to the carcass Vallandigham made that house his headquarters, and other Northern rebels who have had the means to pay the cost, have invariably given that place the preference when they visited this city There was a time when some of our papers made a great fuss about the displacement of Washington's portrait, and the substitution of the rebel General Robert Lee, but the landlord made some sort of an explanation, and the affair was soon forgotten It was natural and proper that Mr Jefferson Davis should go there He would be sure to meet friends there—and to meet with a hearty welcome—the best the house can furnish will not be considered to good for him The costliest carpet will be spread under his feet—the richest viands will be placed upon his table, and a bed of eider down will not be too soft for his repose He will not be reminded of the heroes who were starved in the prison of Andersonville—unless he ventures upon the street

If he dreamed that New York, bad as it is, would honor him with an ovation he counted without his host, or his friends The Japanese jugglers excited a good deal more curiosity and attention than he does outside of his room, why should the people make a fuss about him? He is a lean, tall, feeble old man, gray haired, and stooping under the weight of disappointed ambition During the rebellion there was nothing in his messages or speeches showing extraordinary talent He did not display the courage for which he won credit in an earlier and better day His dignity was at fault in several instances If he ever was a great man, he has outlived his greatness—and the best thing he can do is to go to Canada, and the loyal people will say

"By all true patriots be it understood
He left his country for his country's good"

Major Robert Anderson denies with indignant emphasis, that he called to see the liberated traitor—and Mr. Horace Greeley publishes a note in the World denying the report that he has been closeted with Davis Joe W Blunt suggests that a procession of crippled soldiers be formed in front of Jeff's lodgings

A lady applied to the Portland, Maine, Police Office on Monday, in search of a lost cat, for which she offered one thousand dollars reward She brought the animal from England and thought a great deal of it. The cat had on when lost a gold necklace worth about forty dollars, which may account for its disappearance

A rascal who lately absconded from New York with several thousand dollars belonging to the Merchants' Union Express Company, was arrested in Chicago on Friday His name is George Andrews

Rev Dr Kennedy, of Troy, was lately presented by the members of his congregation with a purse containing five thousand dollars

Mr. Shippey and his wife were recently poisoned at Charlotte, Michigan, and Mrs. Shippey died early the following morning Mr Shippey, at last accounts, was in a doubtful condition An investigation showed that some biscuit which they ate contained a large amount of arsenic No discovery has yet been made as to who put the arsenic in the flour

The issue of Indiana is extending A law firm in New Albany has received a letter from a woman in Scotland, making inquiry in reference to a divorce, and another from a gentleman in Colorado on the same subject.

The St. Louis Republican states that Archbishop Kenrick has secured possession of a valuable lot in that city, on which he expects to erect a cathedral to cost at least $2,000,000.

GREAT ROWING MATCH AT PITTSBURGH.

Special Dispatch to the Morning Herald.

PITTSBURGH, May 22.

At the pistol shot both started even, Hamill having the advantage, if any difference. Walter adopted the long steady pull, taking the lead in the first two hundred yards, of about one-fourth of a length. Opposite Market street he had increased the distance to about one half a length, which advantage he maintained with apparent ease all the way to the stake boat at the point. Three hundred yards above Cony Brown was a full length ahead and kept it till the turn. Here the Pittsburgher decreased the distance between them to about a half length, but this still left Hamill a good half length in the rear. Before they pulled one hundred yards a temporary stop occurred by Hamill running his boat afoul that of his rival. The latter got clear and kept on his course, maintaining the advantage. At Saw-mill Run Hamill gained slightly and the boats passed the ferry landing very nearly even, Brown leading about four feet, but by a vigorous stroke he again [illegible] them until half a mile from Suspension Bridge. Here Hamill ceased to row. Portlander's time was 46.30. Referee has not given decision yet.

PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURGH, May 22—2½ P. M.

LATER.—Race decided in favor of Brown.

NEW YORK, May 22.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondence says. The recent decision in the New Orleans Courts, that debts incurred for the purchase of slaves before the war are null, involves nearly one hundred millions of dollars in Louisiana alone.

Mayor Hatch, of New Orleans, has decided that theatres are not compelled to sell tickets to negroes.

During the debates in the German Parliament on the question of the adoption of the new North German Constitution, prominent members asserted that the instrument was accepted through fear of the Prussian military power, and that its enforcement in such a manner would lead to a revolution in Germany.

The Herald says: By the arrival of a gentleman who left Queratora in the beginning of March, some facts are gleaned relative to the inside situation there. At that time they were short of ammunition and there was provision enough to last until about the 1st of May. Maximilian had with him Marquez, Miramon, Mejia and other generals who seemed to consider Queretora as their "last ditch." At Vera Cruz the mortality from yellow fever alone was fifty deaths per day.

The Herald's special says: An arrest in Fredericksburg, Va., recently, developed the fact that a secret negro organization, hostile to the military, existed in the town. The party arrested was a man named Potter, from New York, who was charged with having threatened to kill the commanding officer of the troops stationed there, the Mayor and several citizens, and to burn Fredericksburg and Falmouth. He was, however, discharged by the Mayor, the proof being insufficient.

The Herald's Washington special says: The information of the failure of Frazier, Trenholm & Co., of Liverpool, England, agents of the rebel government in Europe, which reached this city to-day, has caused some excitement. The State Department had instituted suits in English Courts against the firm for the recovery of vessels, cotton and munitions of war, and other property of the Confederacy held by them, the suits covering several millions of dollars. It is understood that the United States Government is amply secured and will incur no loss by the failure.

William A. Graham, once Secretary of the United States Navy, afterwards a member of the rebel Senate, but always a federalist, has received his pardon from the President.

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE MORNING HERALD, TITUSVILLE, May 23, 1867.

Owing to the disagreeable state of the weather and to there being quite a scarcity of oil, the Petroleum market was quite dull. The New York market continues depressed, while the Pittsburgh market is firm but inactive. The rain of the last twenty four hours has swollen the Creek and River, and they are now in good boating condition. There was some inquiry to-day. On Pioneer Run offers of 5 cents per gallon for 47 gr. were freely made. Pithole oil of 47 gr. is held at $2.40 to $2.45 delivered on the cars at Titusville. On the McClintock Farm 47 gr. is held at $2 25 at the wells, or $2.35 delivered on the cars at Petroleum Centre. On Upper Cherry Run 47 gr. was offered at $2 00 at the wells. On Cow Run $2.00 were offered for 47 gr. at the wells. The sales reported to-day were as follows. Seven car loads on Pioneer Run, by the working interest of the Foster Farm, for the Cleveland market, 47 gr, at 5 cents per gallon at the wells; 150 barrels on Upper Cherry Run, for the New York market, from the Lyons & Benton well, 45 gr. or under, at $2.45 delivered on the cars at Miller Farm; 500 barrels at Miller Farm, for the New York market, terms not stated; 600 barrels on Pioneer Run, from the Sampson well, for the Cleveland market, 47 gr., at $2.25 delivered on the cars.

The Next Census.

The Bureau of Statistics is making preparations to take the census of 1870 through the internal revenue organization. Director Delmar has been superintending a series of statistical exercise drills, the results of one of which affords a remarkable proof of the thorough organization of the various bureaus of the Treasury Department. He has actually taken a census of the numbers of the entire population of the country already, and that without any expense whatever, except some $50 for stationery. The census was quietly but thoroughly taken during the six weeks of last November and December, and is in most cases the result of actual count in over three thousand five hundred internal revenue divisions. The details will not be furnished to the public until after they have undergone careful revision and arrangement. The returns from a few of the remote mountain districts of the country are the only ones not deemed satisfactory.

When it is remembered that the census of 1860 cost $2,000,000, and required two years in which to announce its result, the quick and economical accomplishment of this vast undertaking is not a little remarkable.

The present census shows the total population of the thirty-seven States in November and December last to have been 34,100,325, and of the States and Territories taken together, 34,705,832 In a majority of the Southern States there has been a decrement of population, in the Eastern States a small increase, and in the Western States a large increase. The results are supported in every instance by the State censuses of 1865, so far as taken.

The comparison with the census of 1860 is as follows: Thirty-seven States, a few of which were then Territories, numbered 31,218,021 inhabitants, and the total States and Territories 31,443,321. The total increment since 1860 has therefore been 3,062,561, which, in view of the late extended conflict, demonstrates the extraordinary recuperative powers of the country.

The population of the District of Columbia is given at 118,867. The population of the sexes in the District has not yet been definitely settled, but, so far as has been ascertained, there is a majority of several thousand females over males.

The Great Rowing Match at Pittsburgh.

We publish a special dispatch this morning giving a brief account of the sculling contest between James Hamill, of Pittsburgh, and Walter Brown, of Portland, Maine. Brown was the victor, not Hamill, as erroneously stated in the dispatch yesterday morning. This settles the question as to the championship of America and the disposal of a purse of $1,000. The match has naturally attracted a great deal of attention, even from without the ranks of boating men.—Each of the contestants has hitherto been remarkably successful, and the victor will achieve the highest position attainable by an oarsman in this country. Hamill was very generously backed by his friends, and the Pittsburghers are no doubt greviously disappointed at the result of the contest. It is the more humiliating to them in view of the trans-Atlantic defeat of their favorite, but as the parties are so evenly matched we presume that the loser would be almost as liberally backed if he should consent to another trial.

Brown is a New Yorker, having been born in Madison, Green county, of that State, on the 7th of October, 1840. He is five feet nine inches in height, and weighs—in racing condition—one hundred and fifty-three pounds. He won his first victory at a regatta in Newark Bay in the fall of 1858, since which time he has been very unusually successful, his last victory, that over Joshua Ward, last fall, in Portland, Maine, having encouraged him to "challenge all comers."

Hamill was born in Pittsburgh in 1838, making his first public appearance as an oarsman when only seventeen. His first important victory was won in 1859, when he defeated Wolfe in a single-scull race of three miles. He considerably extended his reputation by beating Joshua Ward in two races pulled in the Schuylkill in 1862. At Poughkeepsie, however, in July, 1863, Ward defeated him. Hamill was revenged by his victory in a return match in September of the same year. We have not the space to chronicle his further successes and defeats, except that his failure in English waters last year was most signal and complete.

Mr. Robert C. Elliott represented Hamill at the starting point, and Mr. Daniel Kinser acted for Brown. Mr. Henry Cottart and David Lewis were at the buoy. The referee was selected by the judges on the day of the race. On Saturday the judges tossed for choice of positions, and Hamill's representatives won.

In selecting the Monongahela as the place of trial Hamill secured a very great advantage. He has been from boyhood familiar with every variation of its currents and eddies, while Brown knew little of them. The quarrel of the latter with his trainer must, also, have been a serious disadvantage to him. He has won, and the victory is a very decided one.

Ritualism.

The practices of Ritualism, which have caused much bitter discussion in the Episcopal Church in England and the United Sytes, have attracted attention in Parliament. In the House of Lords on the 7th instant, the Primate announced that the Bishops had prepared a bill on this subject, but had delayed action in consequence of an intimation that the Government would issue a royal commission. Lord Derby said he was anxious for the discontinuance of ritualistic practices in the church, and declared his readiness to advise the issue of a royal commission, to inquire into all matters connected with the performance of public worship. This declaration satisfied the Primate, but the Bishop of Carlisle dissented, believing that neither a commission nor legislation was requisite, but that each bishop should be permitted "to deal with the evil." Lord Shaftesbury contended for the necessity of ant ritual legislation, and announced his determination to proceed with the bill he had already introduced in relation to the use of sacrificial vestments.

This subject has created much acrimonious discussion in England; the secular and church journals uniting in protests against the imitations of the ceremonials of the Roman Catholic service which have been introduced into the Established church In New York there is but one Ritualistic church—St. Alban's—the pastor of which declares himself an "English Catholic."

Opening of the Buffalo and Cross Cut Railroad to Mayville.

On Monday last the Buffalo and Oil Creek Cross Cut Railroad was opened from Brocton, the starting point on the Lake Shore Railroad, forty-eight miles west of Buffalo, to Mayville, the pretty little village at the head of Chautauqua Lake. The distance from Brocton to Mayville is fourteen miles. the remaining portion of the route from Mayville to Corry (the termination of the Oil Creek Road), a distance of twenty-eight miles, will be opened within the next three weeks. The officers of the road are.

President—Wm G Fargo; Vice-President—Daniel Williams; Secretary—A. K. Warren; Chief Engineer—A. R. Trew.

Directors—W. G. Fargo, Buffalo; John Butterfield, Utica, Alex. Holland, New York; Thos. Struthers, Warren, Pa.; E. B. Taylor, Warren, Ohio; Daniel Williams, Ashville, New York; M. P. Bemis, Mayville, New York; John Ganson, Buffalo; W. P. Whiteside, John F. Phelps, A. K. Warren, Isaac Moore, Mayville

A correspondent of the Buffalo Express furnishes some interesting facts relating to the enterprise. The Company was organized July 19, 1865, the location commenced September 1, 1865, and work October 10, 1865. This was suspended March 15, 1866; resumed July 1, 1866, and will be completed a distance of 42¼ miles by the 8th of June, 1867.

The capital stock of the road is $600,000; it has cost $23,000 per mile, is 56¾ miles in New York and six and a half in Pennsylvania; this State, however, has passed a law enabling the road to be consolidated into one company, which will shortly be accomplished. The guage is the compromise, 4 feet 9½ inches, so that cars can be run of either the New York Central or Lake Shore roads. The bed is gravel, the iron being of English manufacture, weighing 56 lbs to the yard. In some places the grade is 72 feet to the mile, but is always in favor of the heavy tonnage.

The road has been built under the immediate supervision of Chief Engineer Trew The distances from Buffalo to Oil City are as follows:

	Miles
From Buffalo to Brocton	48
From Brocton to Mayville	14
From Mayville to Corry	28¾
From Corry, or O. C. R. R., to Titusville	27
From Titusville to Petroleum Centre	10
From Petroleum Centre to Oil City	8
From Buffalo to Oil City	155¾
From Mayville to Jamestown (by steamer)	32

The first passenger car over the road had one hundred and three passengers from Brocton, many of them visiting the Mayville court, Judge Daniels, the presiding judge, being among them.

Treachery Among Fenians.

The disclosures made during the Fenian trials are perfectly astounding as to the utter want of honor among the Fenian agents, many of whom were in the employ of the British government; and, taking the exhibit made at the trials as true, the Pall Mall Gazette is justified in saying:

"It is as strange and incomprehensible as it is true, that notwithstanding the romance, the generosity and the fidelity which are the common characteristics of the Irish, and which especially show themselves in a perverted but energetic form in the way in which they will frequently band themselves together to prevent or frustrate the execution of the law, there is also to be found amongst them an amount of political treachery of which it would be hard for any other nation to show more hideous examples. Is it possible, for instance, to imagine deeper infamy than that of the wretch McNally, who, being a barrister, for many years received a pension from the Irish government for selling the secrets of his clients? There has never been an Irish insurrection or insurrectionary movement which has not been counterplotted by native traitors, and it is highly desirable that any one who has an inclination to embark in such an undertaking should be made aware of the fact that it is morally certain that some of his friends and associates will be all the while making a few pounds by informing the government of everything that is going on in the councils of their enemies"

T. F. Burke and Patrick Doran, who are sentenced to be hung on the 29th of May, were convicted principally upon the testimony of one Col. Massey, who was a trusted Fenian, and who was betrayed into the hands of the police by another Fenian. This was Massey's excuse for belying others, and we doubt whether there was much compunction of conscience in the matter. Massey was of the stuff of which sneaks and traitors are made. He was a citizen of the United States, and had rebelled against his adopted country and served in the Confederate army. The Fenian organization knew him to be a doubly dyed traitor when they trusted him; they knew he had betrayed the American Union, had insulted the flag that protected him, stung the hand that fed him; and how could they expect the miserable dog to keep faith with them? Burke denied that Massey had been a Colonel in the Rebel army, as he professed, and this raises the presumption that Burke, too, had been a traitor to the American Union. If this be the case, then, when he and Massey were confronted in the Court room, the only difference between them, so far as their cases appeal for American sympathy, consists in the fact that one of the perjured traitors had purchased his own accursed life, by betraying his associate in treason against the United States.

The Commonwealth and Corporations.

On the 2th of April last a bill was approved by Governor Geary, which is of more than usual importance to corporations created under the laws of this Commonwealth, and all others doing business in this State. It is entitled An act regulating interest on public accounts," and contains three sections, as follows:

Section 1. That if the cashier of any bank doing business in this Commonwealth, whether incorporated under the laws of this State or of the United States, shall neglect or refuse to collect the tax imposed by the act of February 3, 1866, upon the stockholders of said banks, and pay the same into the State treasury, at the time specified in said act, it shall be the duty of the Auditor General and State Treasurer, in the settlement of all accounts with said cashier, or banks, or stockholders of said banks, as the case may be, to charge interests upon all balances due the Commonwealth, at the rate of twelve per cent per annum, from the time said taxes became due and payable at the time of said settlement.

Sec. 2. That in the settlement of all accounts for taxes due the Commonwealth by incorporated companies or institutions, whether the same are incorporated by or under any law of this Commonwealth, or are incorporated by some other power or authority, and lawfully doing business in this Commonwealth, the Auditor General and State Treasurer shall charge interest upon the balance or balances found due the Commonwealth by such companies, at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the time said taxes became due and payable, to the time of the settlement of the same. Provided, that the payment of interest as aforesaid, shall not relieve such corporations from any of the penalties prescribed by law for neglect or refusal to furnish reports to the Auditor General.

Sec. 3. That hereafter all balances due the Commonwealth by any corporation on accounts settled agreeably to the provisions of the act of March 30, 1811, or any other act of assembly, shall bear interest from thirty days after the date of settlement, at the rate of twelve per centum per annum until the same is paid.

The first section of this act is really useless, Judge Agnew, of the Supreme Court, in a recent decision having declared that the law of February 23, 1866, requiring cashiers of national banks in this State to collect annually from stockholders a tax of one per centum upon the par value of the stock held, is unconstitutional. This decision relieves the stockholders of those banks of taxation under this particular act, and the State institutions are so few that the amount derived from the tax would be insignificantly small. The second section requires corporations to pay, in addition to the penalty of ten per cent. for neglect or refusal to furnish their annual reports to the Auditor General on or before the 31st December, 12 per cent. interest on the tax due the State, under the act of 1850, from the time the tax became due until its settlement.—The act of 1811, referred to in the third section, only authorized interest at the rate of six per cent., to be charged on balance found due on settlement from three months after the date thereof, but under this section double interest, or twelve per cent, is to be charged for one month after settlement. The passage of this act will cause officers of corporations to be more prompt in their settlements with the Commonwealth.

DR. SPENCE'S PATENT—The following claim has been recently issued from the United States Patent office, to our fellow-townsman, Dr G. O Spence:

REGISTERS IN BANKRUPTCY.—Chief Justice Chase (says the Washington Chronicle), has thus far nominated about one-third of the entire number of registers in bankruptcy, or those for the Eastern and Northern States, also for Georgia and Louisiana. For this reason the names of the nominees have not been furnished to the press.

TITUSVILLE AND PITHOLE PLANK ROAD LAW.

A Supplement, to an act to incorporate the Titusville and Pithole Plank Road Company, approved the second day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Whereas, The said Titusville and Pithole Plank Road Company have been defrauded out of tolls lawfully due to them, by persons driving or travelling over portions of said plankk road, who have refused to pay said tolls, or have evaded the payment thereof by turning off the said road before reaching the toll gates, whereby the said company have suffered very material damage, to remedy which the ordinary writ of summons has been found to be ineffectual,

And whereas, It is proper that a more speedy and effectual remedy should be had for the prevention of said offences, and for the recovery of penalties therefor, for remedy whereof,—

Section 1, Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted, by the authority of the same, That the stockholders of said company agree that they will keep suitable persons for the collection of tolls, and said toll agents shall be at all times at their proper places for the collection of tolls, and that whenever any person or persons shall attempt to evade, or shall evade or refuse the payment of any tolls due to the said company, or shall misrepresent the distance travelled over said plank road in any of the ways mentioned in the act entitled "An Act regulating turnpike and plank road companies," approved the twenty sixth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty nine, and the supplements thereto, or in any other manner, such person or persons shall be liable to the penalties contained in said act, and its supplements, and all penalties and tolls recovered by process of law shall be for the use of said company.

Section 2. That any person or persons so offending may be arrested on view by any constable, gate keeper, or officer of said company, and taken before any Justice of the Peace of Titusville, or of Venango county, who shall proceed to investigate, hear and determine the case, as though commenced by capias; and any Justice of the Peace of Titusville, or of Venango county may, on application of any gate keeper, or officer of said company, and without affidavit, issue a capias for the arrest of such person or persons, and proceed there in as in ordinary suits commenced by capias. Said writs of capias may be served, and arrests be made, by any constable of Titusville, or Venango county. In case the name or names of such person or persons shall be unknown, a capias may nevertheless issue.—In such case the constable upon arresting such person or persons, shall inquire of him or them, his or their names, and if given, he shall insert the name in such writ and thereupon; or in case such person or persons shall refuse to give his or their name, the same proceedings shall be had as if such writ had issued with the name or names contained therein

Section 3. No gate keeper, or officer of said company, shall be disqualified as a witness in such proceedings, but may be examined as a witness the same as any other person. No person or persons against whom judgment may be obtained in such proceedings shall be entitled to the benefit of the exemption laws. On failure to obtain satisfaction on any judgment under said proceedings, with costs of suit, the defendant or defendants may be arrested and held as in ordinary proceedings in capias.

Chautauqua Lake and its surroundings, form one of Nature's most charming pictures. Travelers may journey thousands of miles and find no scenery so enchanting, no landscape so beautiful!

Business men and dyspeptics generally, and the ladies in particular, go and take a trip on the Lake, breathe the pure and invigorating air, and behold some of the grandest scenery in the world! Nature's medicine is better for you than drugs concocted by man; change your desk stool, your invalid easy chair, with its humdrum and wearying walls and curtains for a lounge on the steamer's deck, and a sight of—

"Hills, rock ribbed and ancient as the sun," and—

"Gentle vales with groves between."

Chautauqua Lake is fast becoming a favorite resort for invalids and tourists. To accommodate them, excellent hotels are established at either extremity of the Lake. Parties going to or from the oil regions to Buffalo will find this route as cheap, about as quick and far pleasanter, than by Erie.

The steamboat steamer CHAUTAUQUA, has been refitted throughout this spring, and an awning added, extending from the pilot house to the stern, and began her regular trips from Jamestown to Mayville, April 22d. Connects with the Lake Shore Railroad at Westfield; arrive at Buffalo at 5.20 p. m. James M. Murry, so well known and so popular, is still in command.

American Hotel—To the Public.—I take pleasure in announcing that on the 8th of April I reopened the American Hotel and resumed its management in person. The house is thoroughly refitted and put in good order to accomodate in the best manner, those who may give it their patronage. If it has been my good fortune from long experience and care to be considered generally successful in the effort to give satisfaction, I would say that my patrons may expect the same good treatment. Prices shall be doubled and that all my old friends, who, knowing me well, and as many new ones as may see fit to come, can find a good stopping place in Titusville at the "American" with S. M. MILLS.

Consumption Curable by Dr. Schenck's MEDICINES.—To CURE CONSUMPTION, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good and wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations; and, by using the SEA WEED TONIC in connection, the appetite is restored.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, Consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action. Take the pills frequently to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhœa they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the room as much as possible, eat all the rich food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well.

FINANCIAL.

FISK & HATCH,

BANKERS,

AND DEALERS IN

Government and other Desirable Securities,

NO. 5 NASSAU STREET, N. Y., recommend to investors the

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific R. R. Co.

This Company is constructing under the patronage of the United States Government,

the Western end of the Great National Railway across the Continent.

Their line will extend from Sacramento, California, across the Sierra Nevadas to the California State line, traversing the RICHEST AND MOST POPULOUS SECTION OF CALIFORNIA, and thence through the GREAT MINING REGIONS OF THE TERRITORIES, to the vicinity of Salt Lake City.

It forms the SOLE WESTERN LINK of the only route to the Pacific which is adopted by Congress and aided by the issue of UNITED STATES BONDS.

Their road is already completed, equipped and running for 94 miles from Sacramento to within 12 miles of the summit of the Sierras, and a large amount of the work of Grading, Tunnelling, &c., beyond that point has been accomplished.

The FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS of this Company afford unusual inducements of Safety and Profit to Investors, for the following among other reasons, viz.

First The rate of interest is SIX PER CENT IN GOLD, payable semi annually in the City of New York.

Second The PRINCIPAL is payable in GOLD at maturity.

Third The cost of the Bonds, NINETY-FIVE PER CENT and accrued interest, is TEN PER CENT less than that of the cheapest Six Per Cent. Gold Bearing Bonds of the Government.

Fourth The UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT PROVIDES NEARLY HALF THE AMOUNT NECESSARY TO BUILD THE ENTIRE ROAD AND LOOKS MAINLY TO A SMALL INCOME FROM THE FUTURE TRAFFIC FOR RE-PAYMENT.

Fifth Owing to this liberal provision, accompanied with EXTENSIVE GRANTS OF PUBLIC LANDS, by which the Government has aided this great national enterprise, ITS SUCCESS IS ENDORSED BY CERTAIN, AND THE FINANCIAL STABILITY IS ALTOGETHER INDEPENDENT OF THE CONTINGENCIES WHICH ATTEND ORDINARY RAILROAD ENTERPRISES.

Sixth The Security of the FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS is therefore AMPLE, and their character for safety and reliability is equalled only by that of the obligations of the GOVERNMENT itself.

Seventh. The net earnings of the completed portion are ALREADY LARGELY IN EXCESS OF THE INTEREST OBLIGATIONS WHICH THE COMPANY WILL INCUR ON TWICE THE DISTANCE, and are steadily increasing, rendering the UNINTERRUPTED PAYMENT OF THE INTEREST ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN.

Eighth At the present rate of Gold they pay nearly 8 9 Per Cent, per annum, on the amount invested.

The Bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000 with semi annually Gold Coupons attached, payable in New York and are offered for the present 97 per cent. and accrued interest (in currency) from January first.

Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country. Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes National Bank Notes or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive punctual attendance.
